John 6:1-27 & Psalm 65

“The Place Where Jesus Had Given Thanks”

The Place Where Jesus Had Given Thanks

John 6:23

Other boats from Tiberias came near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks.

One stayed... Sang a hymn we could call:

Psalm 65 (ESV)

¹Praise is due to you, O God, in Zion, and to you shall vows be performed.

²O you who hears prayer,
to you shall all flesh come.

³When iniquities prevail against me,
you atone for our transgressions.

⁴Blessèd is the one
you choose and bring near,
to dwell in your courts!

We shall be satisfied with the goodness of your house,
the holiness of your temple!

⁵By awesome deeds
you answer us with righteousness, O God of our salvation,

the hope of all the ends of the earth
and of the farthest seas;

⁶the one who by his strength
established the mountains, being girded with might;
⁷who stills the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves,

[who stills] the tumult of the peoples,

⁸so that those who dwell
at the ends of the earth
are in awe at your signs.

You make the going out of the morning and the evening to shout for joy.

⁹You visit the earth and water it;
you greatly enrich it;
the river of God is full of water;
you provide their grain,
for so you have prepared it.

¹⁰You water its furrows abundantly, settling its ridges,
softening it with showers,
and blessing its growth.

¹¹You crown the year with your bounty;
your wagon tracks
overflow with abundance.

¹²The pastures of the wilderness overflow,
the hills gird themselves with joy,

¹³the meadows clothe themselves
with flocks,

the valleys deck themselves with grain,
they shout and sing together for joy.
